GET FAMILIARIZED

Larkin Hospitality is a family owned and operated collection of hotels throughout New England. Seven of these hotels are located in South Burlington, Vermont, where we host our students. We take a very personal and friendly approach to hospitality and employment. Students are shuttled to and from work with the hotel van. Public transportation is a popular way to get around. The closest bus stop from the house is an 8-10 minute walk. The student house is a historic farmhouse tucked slightly away from town. It's a 2 stories, 4 bedroom, 2 bathroom house with a front and back yard.
